UPON THE SQUARE

Ron LaBlue, Master

It's time again for our stated meeting, and I hope to see more brothers in attendance. We have important business to address, including encouraging greater participation from our current members and advancing our new brothers through their degrees.

I want to personally thank each officer who has taken time out of their busy schedules to practice degree work. Your dedication is what keeps our Lodge strong. I am currently scheduling an Entered Apprentice and a Fellowcraft degree to be held as soon as possible, so please stay tuned for details.

Additionally, I want to remind everyone that, due to our first meeting of the year falling on New Year's Day—when we hosted our GMOV—we arranged for a joint meeting with Wadsworth No. 25 on Friday, April 4th. This will follow a prime rib dinner with all the expected accompaniments, prepared by Brother Justin Bright from Wadsworth Lodge with assistance.

Any brothers interested in participating in the Grand Master's Visit, preparing or serving dinner, or setting up the Lodge would be greatly appreciated. Your efforts help ensure the success of this important event.

I hope this message finds you well, and I look forward to seeing you all soon.

Gregg Moore, JW

I hope you will be able to attend our April meeting, as we have some exciting topics to discuss. If you haven't been to a meeting in a while, I encourage you to join us—enjoy a great dinner, reconnect with your brothers, and share in good conversation. The strength of our Lodge comes not just from ritual and tradition but from the fellowship we build together.

As always, I like to share a positive message each month,

The Grand Master's Visit: A Time-Honored Tradition

The Grand Master's Visit (GMOV) is a cherished Masonic tradition, reinforcing unity, education, and leadership within our fraternity. Historically, the Grand Master would visit lodges to ensure adherence to Masonic principles, encourage growth, and strengthen the bonds between lodges under his jurisdiction.

More than just a formal occasion, the GMOV provides an opportunity to hear from Masonic leadership, discuss the craft's future, and recognize outstanding service. It is also a time for fellowship, often marked by a special dinner and meaningful discussions.

Lodge officers and members play a vital role in making the visit a success—through preparation, participation, and engagement. Whether by assisting with the event, attending the meeting, or simply sharing in brotherhood, each of us contributes to the lasting impact of this important tradition.

Let's come together to make this year's GMOV with Wadsworth No. 25 on April 4th a memorable and meaningful occasion!

something to carry with you in your daily journey.

Quote of the Month:
"A great attitude becomes a great mood, which then becomes a great day, which becomes a great year, which then becomes a great life."

May we all strive to bring positivity into our lives and the lives of those around us. Looking forward to seeing you soon!
